

At the Annual Meeting in Portland

At left, Mark Kurusz receives the AmSECT Fellowship Award in Cardiovascular Perfusion from Awards Committee chairperson Jeanne Lange. At right, Edwin C. Bulloch accepts the AmSECT Fellowship Award in Nephrology. Both awards are for outstanding presentations at the meeting.

An unexpected and moving moment: Mrs. John Gibbon presents AmSECT with a medal that had been awarded to her late husband. The medal is reproduced below.

Outgoing AmSECT president Charles Reed received a special award of appreciation for "courage in confronting issues, charity of time and energy, and leadership in charting new ventures".
