

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

JECT requires authors to disclose any commercial association that might pose a conflict of interest with the submitted manuscript by completing the Conflict of Interest statement listed below. It is the responsibility of the authors to fully disclose institutional or corporate affiliations that might constitute a conflict. Any association that results in financial exchange between the author(s) and a private corporation, or entity, must be disclosed. These include consultancies, stock ownership, patent-licensing or similar relationships. If commercial products are evaluated (not just listed in the methodology), the authors are required to include in their cover letter the following:

Conflict of Interest Statement: (please check only one box and sign below)

I declare on behalf of myself and all authors the following:

- We do not have any material, financial, or other relationship with any healthcare-related business or other entity whose products or services may be discussed in, or directly affected in the marketplace by, this manuscript.
- The below-listed authors do have a material, financial, or other relationship with a healthcare-related business or other entity whose products or services may be discussed in, or directly affected in the marketplace by, this manuscript. This relationship is specified below.

Signature of Senior Author

All funding sources supporting the work will be acknowledged at the end of the manuscript. If the editorial staff feels that there is a potential conflict of interest, it must be disclosed in written format. Authors will be apprised of such a decision in writing prior to publication.
